DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 35-37 and 45-46 are presented for examination.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 35-37 and 45-46 are allowable.

The present invention is directed to an integrated, interactive telephone and computer network communication system. A server delivers a marketing message employing a telephone conferencing function.

The closest prior art are: Article titled "Competition drives operators toward retail innovation" by Mendler discloses a "Family and Friends " program where the customers provide the telephone numbers of friends and family to MCI in order for MCI to introduce their services to the friends and family provided by the customers.

Riddle (5,857,189) discloses sharing files in a teleconferencing environment between two parties .

Cinvalar (EP 0 732 835 A2) discloses a server receives a request for service which requires a phone connection. The server activates a process which handles calling the phone number associated with the request.

The skilled artisan would have not made the combination to provide for the claimed invention of " receiving a telephone call from a caller at said server; querying said caller by said server for a third-party telephone number; delivering from said server to said caller and said third party a marketing message during said telephone conference call". This patentable distinction is included into independent claims 35 and 36.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
